

Lita Cerqueira

Always attentive to her environment, it is with a sharp gaze, always full of tenderness and sensitivity that Lita Cerqueira gives us special moments of everyday life.

Wielding with great virtuosity the magic of black and white, with a single click, seizing a gesture, a look, she plunges to the bottom of the soul of these simple people whose path she has crossed and given them all their dignity in wonderful portraits.

By grasping for us the familiar gesture of the little baker, the potter or the fisherman mending his net, she returns to her gesture all her humanity and her poetry and transmits to us the serene tranquillity with which these craftsmen practice their profession.

Any Collin

