Dana and Saturn

BY LOREDANA

Dana and Saturn

We are thrilled to present, "Dana and Saturn," a captivating photographic exhibition by artist Loredana (b. 1958), available on our online Artsy space from September 30 to November 30.

The exhibition delves into the profound connection between Dana and Saturn, two individuals whose friendship blossomed during their teenage years amidst the vibrant and challenging backdrop of a bustling city in Paris – all observed by the attentive eyes of Loredana.

Through her lens, she captures the essence of Dana and Saturn's journey from adolescence to adulthood. The exhibition portrays their evolving friendship, highlighting the joys and trials they face as they navigate the complexities of contemporary life. Each photograph is a testament to the unique bond they share, offering viewers a glimpse into their world without any words but with images from Loredana's exquisite observation.

Loredana's work is a testament to her ability to blend various artistic disciplines seamlessly, storytelling through images alone. Themes of friendship, growth, sexuality, and the passage of time are both poignant and thought-provoking in her photo narratives. The artist has carved a remarkable path in the world of multimedia art, with an extensive career that spans various forms of artistic expression, including photography, performance, sculpture, painting, and design. A fervent lover of modern technologies, Loredana is always on the lookout for concepts that captivate her imagination. She meticulously researches and integrates her diverse love for materials into her creations, making her work both innovative and deeply personal.
